

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

August 2006

On Stage

After weeks of frustration due to missing keys, the portable stage was available again at last and so it was back to business as usual for this month's double spotlight night.

Next Spotlight
17 August
Doug Wood
Alex Okon

The first half saw the club's favourite 'cowboy' and yodeller, Jack Hakin, resplendent in his 'cowboy' gear. We were treated to a selection of songs from the likes of Marty Robbins, Hank Williams and Slim Whitman. Well done Jack – it was great!

The second half spotlight saw the return of Old English, honing their skills prior to setting off for Whitby. They closed the night with a fine traditional set of songs.

Thanks to everyone for a grand mix of styles and genres – 2 nights; 16 acts; 48 songs, tunes and poetry too.

Sound Bites!

On our website photo gallery and review pages you can listen to sound clips of performers. If you like what you hear, then get yourselves along and enjoy the music live!
