

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

June 2007

🎵 This Month...

Another packed evening in the Folk Bar on 7th June with 15 performers - a warm and sociable air to the proceedings. There were some surprises too... the return of Ray Derrick, Jim Wigfield playing an instrumental in DADGAD tuning, Tony Hamblin back to banjo again, and Mike Jessop covering a jiva song.

Mike was in great form for his Bothal Suite extended set on the 21st - as always he included some Alan Hull songs, other covers, a bit of storytelling, politics, jokes... but wait, even better, he had the audience singing along to numerous songs... no mean feat at Ashington. Well done that man!

🎵 Wot - No Bar?

This was our first month without bar facilities in the Folk Bar and Bothal Suite. Judging by attendance figures it hasn't put people off - but we can't help smiling when we hear the occasional "Oh bugger! I've forgotten to buy me beer downstairs."

🎵 Allan Taylor - Nov 15th

Tickets are now on sale; we've kept to the same low price as 2006 - £4 in advance, £5 on the night. Don't forget the 'Early Bird' prize draw for refund of ticket price. More details at:

🎵 Second Reminder

jiva will be on holiday for the 16th August club night in the Bothal Suite. The room is booked, so, like last year when they missed their first ever night, someone will ably run the evening.

To quote the National Lottery:

"It could be you..."
