

ASHINGTON FOLK CLUB

July 2007

It's A Blast...

Not that we're blowing our own trumpet but we had another month of varied and excellent entertainment at Ashington Folk Club.

This month the Club heard 24 different performers and still more new faces. Isn't it great?

First newcomer was children's story writer Lorna Windham who enthralled us with a chapter from her story 'Toby's Secret'. Let's hope she comes often enough so we can learn what the secret is!

Second newcomer was Peter Meek who entertained with some well known classic songs. We expect to see more of Peter at the club... well, here's hoping.

Final newcomer this month was flugel horn player Gareth Jones on a visit to see Dad (regular performer Keith Jones). Gareth filled the Bothal Suite with the incredible sound, and we look forward to a return visit from the brass section too.

Y'all come back now... hear?

Allan Taylor - Nov 15th

Tickets are now on sale; we've kept to the same low price as 2006 - £4 in advance, £5 on the night. Don't forget the 'Early Bird' prize draw for refund of ticket price. More details at:

Final Reminder

jiva will be on holiday for the 16th August club night in the Bothal Suite. The room is booked - so, like last year when they missed their first ever night, someone will ably run the evening.

To quote the National Lottery:

"It could be you..."
